

Dinosaur Lovey Blanket Crochet Pattern

Here is another lovey blanket pattern to add to the collection! I spotted some dinosaur fleece at Jo-Ann Fabrics the other day and just had to make it into a little lovey :)

Materials:

- Dino themed fleece fabric
- Size H Crochet Hook
- Worsted weight Yarn
- Rotary Cutter and Skip Stitch Blade:
- Poly-fil stuffing
- Tapestry needle
- Large safety eyes
- Stitch Marker

Abbreviations:

Magic Ring Tutorial

SC = Single Crochet

HDC = Half Double Crochet
DC = Double Crochet
SC Decrease = Single Crochet Decrease

First cut your fleece into about a 12x12 square. Then you will want to round off one of the edges like in the picture below.

Next, run your Skip Stitch Blade about a half inch from all edges of your fabric. Use ruler edge to help you create a straight line. You will have to free hand the curved line. Slow and steady!

Take your yarn and hook and SC + Chain 1 along the holes in the fabric. Fasten off and weave in ends when you are done.

To make the spikes, attach yarn and chain 5.

SC in second chain from hook, HDC in next chain, DC in last two chains.

Skip two stitches and join to blanket with a SC. Chain 5 and continue to repeat pattern.

Feel free to stitch on a mouth (either a smile or something ferocious!) as well as little arms and legs. I think the arms and feet of my Monster Lovey Blanket would work well for a dinosaur as well.
