

PICOT HEM BAMBOO STITCH BABY BLANKET

Permission granted to Project Linus for use by Judy Graham, www.knittingtipsbyjudy.com

Cast on as many stitches as you want, remembering that the Bamboo Stitch is a multiple of 2 + 1, an uneven number.

Knit the first rows to make the Picot Hem.

Continue knitting in the Bamboo Stitch till the blanket is a few inches shorter than you want.

Knit another Picot Hem at the top.

Pick up stitches on the long sides of the blanket, one side at a time.

Work a Picot hem on each side.

PICOT HEM

Knit 5 rows stockinette.

PICOT ROW-with wrong side facing you, K1, YO, K2 tog

Knit 5 more rows stockinette.

Turn under and sew.

BAMBOO STITCH

Work on a multiple of 2 plus 1 (uneven).

Row 1 K1, *YO, K 2, Pass the YO the 2 knitted stitches, repeat from *

Row 2 Purl all stitches.

Repeat these 2 rows for pattern.